

Kit for phase transition with sensors and software

EQ821

Function

Studying changes of state for liquids and solids. Identifying and describing solidification and liquefaction. Generating charts for temperature vs time using data collected during phase changes. Generating charts related to changes in the physical state of water.

- Set for use monitored through a computer connected to the Cipedelab interface.

Knowledge areas

Physics - Chemistry

Level

Graduation - Technical education - High school

